

SIMPLICITY™

Relativity Managed by Integreon

Litigation and e-discovery are challenging enough without the headaches of managing a software review platform. With Simplicity™ from Integreon, you won't have to. For a simple monthly fee, you gain access to kCura's Relativity, while we apply over a decade of experience and ISO-certified best practices to hosting and project management. When e-discovery gets complex, the solution is Simplicity.

RELATIVITY WITH COST CERTAINTY

Simplicity from Integreon delivers the power of Relativity, the industry-standard review platform, without the cost uncertainties of purchasing and managing IT hardware, licenses, and infrastructure. We also offer exclusive Relativity add-on capabilities to enhance your review experience.

ELIMINATE YOUR CAPITAL EXPENDITURES

With Simplicity, there's no need to invest in IT systems that can become obsolete within months. We have invested heavily in the flexible infrastructure needed to securely host and manage even the largest data volumes – and as your requirements change, we are ready to scale with you.

SIMPLIFY YOUR BILLING WITH SUBSCRIPTION-BASED PRICING

Our subscription-based pricing provides simple and predictable costs, in addition to dramatically reducing your upfront investment in technology. By fixing the costs for hosting and project management, you gain the improved budget visibility needed to make better-informed litigation decisions.

EXPERIENCE AND QUALITY MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

Integreon's certified Relativity and Project Management Institute (PMI) professionals have Six Sigma Black Belt expertise and years of experience supporting thousands of e-discovery service and technology implementations. We provide up-front database designs, cost-effective solutions and customized best-practices. Our experience and consultative approach help ensure we provide you with consistently high quality service and responsive support.

SIMPLICITY™ ADVANTAGE

- ◆ No Relativity licenses to buy
- ◆ Scalable with your litigation requirements
- ◆ No hardware to buy and no IT infrastructure to maintain

INTEGREON SIMPLIFIES LEGAL DISCOVERY TECHNOLOGY AND SERVICE

Relativity for Hosted Review

- ◆ Integreon offers the industry-standard litigation review platform, kCura's Relativity, which provides a familiar, easy-to-use platform to handle even the most complex case analysis, review and production requirements.

Integreon also provides a unique Relativity offering compared with that of other providers. Through our years of supporting the platform, we have developed add-on capabilities that serve to enhance the review experience.

Step up to Simplicity Plus for E-Discovery Processing and Production

- ◆ For more comprehensive support, consider Integreon's Simplicity Plus, which provides all the advantages of our standard Simplicity offering plus the technology and services needed for processing and production. Our team of experts will help you select from an e-discovery toolkit that includes market-leading technologies. Integreon's integrated process provides the data culling and throughput you need for the fastest, highest-quality processing available. A state-of-the-art colocation also allows for flexibility and scalability should your case or project requirements change.

Available Managed Review with Multi-Lingual Support

- ◆ In addition to the core technologies and service within our Simplicity and Simplicity Plus offerings, Integreon can also provide managed legal review of client documents on an hourly or per document rate. We have years of experience providing document review for Fortune 500 and AmLaw 100 firms throughout the world. From our facilities in the US, UK, India and the Philippines, we provide the rapid turn-around and seasoned reviewers at the price point you need. Our review staff is comprised of attorneys, and our review teams are led by project managers with experience across a wide variety of industries, subject areas, and jurisdictions.

Foreign languages are a specialty of ours. We deploy teams of multi-lingual reviewers, enabling us to support reviews in more than 50 languages.

Accountable Solution Management You Can Trust

- ◆ With Integreon, you will have a single point of contact with accountability, providing a familiar face who will ensure your needs are met and your issues resolved quickly. You can trust our expertise and global capabilities to provide effective e-discovery solutions with the flexibility and certainty you require for litigation processes, technology, time and costs.
