Integreon's Full Range of E-Discovery Solutions Include:

Discovery Consulting

Our consulting practice offers strategic guidance and practical assistance to help clients meet their legal discovery requirements. We collaborate with clients to develop proper case management methodologies, design an overall discovery plan and cost structure, implement Early Case Assessment process, conduct litigation readiness assessment, and better plan for 26 (f) "Meet & Confer."

Digital Forensics: Data Preservation and Collection

Integreon's Electronic Evidence Labs deliver rapid, cost-effective on-site and lab-based data collection and preservation services. All produced data is delivered with a defensible chain of custody. Our services include: global data collection, data and tape indexing and restoration, digital forensic analysis, cell phone forensics, website capture, and expert witness services.

Data Processing & Production

Integreon's proprietary E3™ platform expedites e-discovery with rapid processing of documents needed for review. Our tools help clients narrow the universe of potentially relevant documents by delivering advanced keyword search capabilities, date restrictions, de-duplication, and file type restrictions. The E3™ platform also offers more efficient production process and customizable data production.

Data Analytics

Integreon's data analytics consulting services provide a defensible approach to data reduction that results in 80% data volume reduction — 30% more than traditional keyword search. Clients who choose our services have more defensible results, lower review costs, and often no supplemental productions.

Hosted Review

Integreon's proprietary eView™ is a market-leading, highly scalable, secure, and specialized review platform. eView™ enables clients to better manage the workflow, productivity, and quality of large, complex projects. Our proven software helps streamline document review so clients can get high-quality, faster results at greater cost efficiency.

Global Managed Document Review

Integreon's review services reduce time and cost of document review, historically the most costly phase of e-discovery. Our full-time lawyers conduct privilege and responsiveness reviews from onshore and offshore centers that we own and operate. We employ a scalable, rigorous, and defensible review process that delivers predictable, consistent, and high-quality results.
